TAXES SUGGESTEDExecutive-Legislative

Proposed(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Administration officials talked with congressional leaders today on the possibility of some quick action to assure business of an eased tax burden.

Chairman Harrison, of the senate finance committee, who up to this morning was insistent that nothing could be done immediately on the tax question, was busy conferring with finance officials from the departments.

Two Proposals Discussed

He conferred first with Mariner E. Eccles, chairman of the Federal Reserve board, and later with treasury officials.

There were reports that two proposals were discussed:

One—A simultaneous announcement from President Roosevelt and congressional leaders that business taxes would be revised.

Second—Quick action this session on the bill being framed by a house tax subcommittee to modify the corporate surplus tax.

The house sub-committee, however, worked this morning on levies other than on corporations.

While the tax sub-committee surveyed "nuisance taxes"—those on movies, cosmetics and the like—the senate heard an agriculture committee man say the pending farm bill was constitutional.

The bill, Senator Pope (D-Ia.) asserted, was based on the constitution's interstate commerce clause rather than on the general welfare provision that was the basis of the validated agricultural adjustment act.

The house agriculture committee, meanwhile, completed drafting its tax control bill, companion to the senate farm measure.

Force Roll Call

Convening of the house itself was marked by delaying tactics on the part of opponents of the wages and hours bill. Today was calendar Wednesday and theoretically at least the wage-hour measure could be called up for a vote, unless the house program were delayed.

The opponents' first move was to force a roll call which requires at least a half hour.

If, and when, the wage-hour bill reached the floor, labor committee

Social Security and Unemployment Compensation Representatives

Address Rotary Club

Provisions and operations of social security and unemployment insurance legislation were discussed by Edwin V. Faulhaber and G. C. Riddle of Youngstown at yesterday's noon meeting of the rotary club in the Memorial building.

They were presented by G. R. Deming, who served as chairman for the meeting.

The importance of individual numbers as provided in the old age benefit law was stressed by Faulhaber. He explained that it is necessary for each employer to keep track of the number assigned him by the government and, in the event it is lost, to notify the government.

Faulhaber is district manager for the old age pension bureau of the Social Security Act. Riddle is district manager of the unemployment compensation bureau.

They were presented by G. R. Deming, who served as chairman for the meeting.

In the event a registration card is lost, Faulhaber said, and another is issued to any one person, that person will receive old age benefits on only one card, if the loss is not made known. Payment will not be made on two cards.

One or more employees makes an employer liable to the pension plan provisions; three or more to the unemployment compensation tax, the speaker explained.

Faulhaber also discussed the handling of the fund that is collected from employers and employees for social security. Riddle answered questions concerning unemployment tax, pointing out that benefits begin Jan. 1, 1938.

FRANCE HUNTS
HIGHER-UPS IN
CIVIL WAR PLOTBlast Plan to Overthrow
Republican Rule For
Dictator FormPOLICE RAIDS
COVER COUNTRYSeize Documents Showing
Arrangements For
Conspiracy(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Nov. 24.—Grim operatives of the Surete Nationale ranged the length of France today to arrest the "higher ups" of a thwarted civil war plot to replace France's Republican government with dictatorial and monarchic.

The conspiracy had been wrecked, the People's Front regime announced, and "the government is sure of itself. It is capable of subduing all criminal action directed against the republic."

Hunt In Full Swing
Raids by the national police organization, extending from the German frontier through the capital and to the southern regions near the frontier of insurgent Spain, indicated the hunt for the plot leaders was in full swing.

The implications of the conspiracy smacked of fantastic fiction—yet of the reality that France has seen in 16-month civil war in Spain, her southern neighbor.

Papers seized in the most important of a long series of raids disclosed plans for an uprising similar to that which plunged Spain into armed conflict.

The documents, confiscated yesterday in a Paris loan office, brought to sight what police said were complete arrangements of a conspiracy "against Republican institutions."

The plans included a detailed map of Paris' ancient sewer system—passages large enough to permit movement of armed forces with ease near the chamber of deputies.

List Officers' Names

The map marked the location of regular army munitions depots in Paris. Other documents listed the names and addresses of all officers of the mobile guard and police in the three departments around Paris.

Showdown at Hand on Wage-Hour Control Bill

William Green

Labor ranks confused

John L. Lewis

One of the most determined behind-the-scenes battles in the history of capital and labor is being fought over the wages-and-hours bill. Administration supporters of the measure received a setback when William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, announced his opposition after having previously taken a favorable attitude toward the bill. Basing his criticism on two scores—that the national labor relations board was not "safe" to handle such legislation, and that the present reversion made more drastic steps necessary—Green took a stand which will directly benefit employers who seek to kill the measure as detrimental to their business. Aligned with those supporting the bill is John L. Lewis, head of the C. I. O., who has declared himself in favor of its passage.

More Rabbit Fever

COLUMBUS, Nov. 24.—Dr. Finley Van Oordt, chief of the state division of communicable diseases, predicted today that because of the increase in the number of rabbits and hunters this year, there would be more tularemia (rabbit fever) cases among Ohioans. He urged caution in cleaning the animals for cooking.

The 40-cent drop was compared to a 20-cent drop in suburban Struthers, a $20 drop in nearby Lowellville and a 40-cent raise in Campbell.

County Auditor John J. Arnold estimated a $3,000,000 rise in taxable values in both the city and Youngstown school district areas.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt to Have White House Feast

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Although President Roosevelt has been in office nearly five years, he and Mrs. Roosevelt will eat their first Thanksgiving turkey in the White House tomorrow.

Born in Greenford, May 1, 1862, he spent his entire life in this vicinity. He was a member of the Holy Trinity English Lutheran church. He leaves four sons and three daughters, Horace and Edward of Salem; Hiram at home; John, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Mrs. Grace Wright, Salem; Mrs. Pearl Ross and Mrs. Harriet Ross of Garrett, Ind.; one brother, Hiram of Salem, and 20 grandchildren.

The last minute change in arrangements found most of the Roosevelt children already engaged for the holiday, so there will be no family reunion at the White House.

Only the President's eldest son and secretary, James Roosevelt, his wife, Betsy, and their 5-year-old daughter, Sara, are expected to be present.

The dinner will be early in the afternoon in deference to yellow-haired Sara's bedtime schedule. Her sister, Kate, nearly 2, isn't considered old enough for holiday dinners.

The White House turkey, to be stuffed with chestnuts, probably will be sent from the Arthurdale

VANDY CHOICE OVER ALABAMA IN GRID GAME

Barker Picks Cornell To Beat Penn; Detroit Over Duquesne

By HERBERT BARKER
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Patrolling the Broadway beat: Six-day bike stars, riding five abreast, limbering up in Central park.... Three of the four wrestling Duseks trying to crowd into one taxi.... An old shoe shiner man at 42nd st. and Sixth Avenue getting a kick out of a postal from Paris mailed by Eddie Brannick, secretary of the Giants.... Hockey fans lined up in front of the Garden buying tickets for good old Ching Johnson's debut with the Americans last night.

Thanksgiving Day
Alabama-Vanderbilt: If a Commodore can't cope with a tide, Crimson or otherwise, things have come to a pretty pass. The trouble is this particular tide happens to be undefeated and untied. So was the one King Canute tried to stop. Maybe Vanderbilt will be luckier. Vanderbilt.

Penn-Cornell: One of those traditional things in which the form charts are a snare and a delusion. Even so Cornell seems to have entirely too much for the Quakers.

Denver-Colorado: There's a suspicion that Colorado, sparked by Whizer White, has a whizzing good football team. Colorado.

Duquesne-Detroit: What's the matter with Duquesne. Where are the snows of yester-year Detroit.

West Virginia-George Washington: The Colonials must have used mirrors in holding Arkansas' air raiders scoreless last week. The colon says West Virginia.

Texas A. and M.-Texas: Looks like Texas called it a season after beating Baylor. Texas A. and M.

Kansas-Missouri: If you know any outfit tougher to figure than Kansas, keep it to yourself. Missouri.

Brown-Rutgers: Nothing to choose. Brown.

Catholic-South Carolina: Ditto to this one. Catholic.

Mississippi-Mississippi State: Maybe this is mud in our eye but we like Mississippi.

Kentucky-Tennessee: Nothing but tradition to distinguish this game this year. Tennessee.

Furman-Clemson: On the records, all Clemson.

Saturday
Army-Navy: The big service duel finds the combatants far below their standard of other years but that's not likely to make this year's game any less savagely fought. The Cadets get the nod.

Duke-Pitt: There appears to be considerable doubt whether the unbeaten Panthers want to travel to Pasadena again but if they do they will have to get past Duke. This probably will be bitterly fought all the way but the votes go to Pitt.

Fordham-New York University: There's no doubt about Fordham welcoming a jaunt to Pasadena. Fordham.

Columbia-Stanford: Stanford

Boston College-Holy Cross: The spot for an upset but this corner strings along with Holy Cross.

Notre Dame-Southern California: The fighting Irish haven't scored more than one touchdown in any game since the opener against Drake but they've won four decisions since then just the same. Notre Dame.

Rice-Baylor: Baylor.

Texas Christian-Southern Methodist: Christian has played just about the toughest schedule in the country and ought to be due for a big let-down after the victory over Rice. Southern Methodist.

U. C. L. A.-Missouri: Playing two games in three days won't help Missouri. U. C. L. A.

Georgia Tech-Georgia: Georgia Tech.

Tulane-Louisiana State: Louisiana:

Kansas State-Nebraska: Nebraskas ought to win this and take the Big Six crown.

San Francisco-Michigan State: Out of a hat. Michigan State.

Villanova-Loyola (Los Angeles): The unbeaten Philadelphians get this vote.

Fordham Bowl Bid Would Be Triumph For Crowley

Rams' Coach Would Be Second Bowl Player In History To Come Back With Own Team

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK: Nov. 24.—A Rose Bowl invitation for Fordham would give Jimmy Crowley with about the greatest personal triumph ever accorded a young football coach.

"Sleepy Jim" was in the Rose Bowl once before, in 1925, when he and his fellow "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame ran a Stanford team ragged to 27 to 14.

In the event California looks favor upon Fordham's claims, Jim would become the second bowl player in history to come back with his own gang. Wallace Wade, who played for Brown in the 1916 Rose Bowl game and subsequently took three Alabama teams there, was the other day.

Even if Jimmy doesn't reach the Rose Bowl this time, they won't hold him off for long. He'll be the grand old man of football one of these days. He's the only one of the young coaches with that touch of genius, or whatever you want to call it, that 'Rock' had.

Crowley has good reason to remember that previous visit. He was in the hospital for a couple of weeks afterward, nursed

JINX TO FACE SAMMY BAUGH, CARDS' ROOKIE

Rickey Clings To Belief All-America Players are Diamond Timber

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 24.—Advisers to Branch Rickey, Cardinal executive, insisted that the best ball players are still to be found in cornfields and around semi-pro lots, but Rickey still hopes to build All-American football players into baseball's heroes.

"I can see why it shouldn't work out all right," Rickey said. "After all it shouldn't be so difficult for a famed athlete to sock a little baseball delivered by a pitcher."

But the advisers, principally Charley Barrett, head of the scouting staff, say it can't be done. And Rickey replies that he will fool everybody some day and have an all-American on the Cardinal team.

It has become a hobby with Rickey. Many gridiron heroes have gone through the Rickey school but in each case failed to show the same brilliance on the diamond that they did on the gridiron.

Current candidate is Sammy Baugh, an ideal type for the experiment. Baugh achieved fame with Texas Christian university. He also fared well on the T. C. U. ball team, playing third base, and was considered one of the best batters in the Texas conference.

Baugh will have to fight a jinx. It is the popular opinion of most observers that the two sports are widely separated. The opinion is soundly based on the fact that an athlete extraordinarily talented in both games is extremely rare.

The list of football players who flunked during the Rickey training includes some well-known names.

Ernie Vick, the all-American center at Michigan, served a brief term as catcher for the Cardinals. He was released within a short time.

premier and now vice premier. Minister of Interior Mark Dorsey, who announced uncovering of the plot last night, said the conspirators were organized like a regular army with headquarters, divisions and regiments which showed the indisputable character of civil war."

Reports of the widespread raids, investigations and arrests continued to flow into the Paris headquarters of Surete Nationale.

Among the swift police actions was a search of a chateau owned by the heirs of the late Francois Coty, perfume manufacturer, where investigators reported they found underground rooms and passages with doors controlled by infra-red rays—but no arms.

Lisbon Roll Call Workers Confident

LISBON, Nov. 24.—With the end of the annual Red Cross roll call set for Thanksgiving, Lisbon workers are rapidly approaching the quota of 500 set for the village.

Other parts of the county are believed to be responding to the efforts of workers just as wholeheartedly. As the result of a challenge made by Rev. J. M. Cameron, Lisbon, county chairman of the drive, Lisbon and East Palestine are pitted against each other for final honors. The outcome will be announced probably the latter part of the week.

Pleads Guilty

MANSFIELD, Nov. 24.—Pose Wade, 42, of Shelby, was under one to 20 years sentence in Ohio penitentiary today after pleading guilty in the common pleas court of Judge C. H. Huston to a second degree manslaughter charge in the traffic death of his son, Woodrow, 18. Previously, another son, Wilbur, 16, testified that his father threatened their lives and that the crash of Woodrow's automobile, in which Woodrow was killed, was deliberate.

McCulloch's

We Pause to Give Thanks . . .

Three hundred and sixteen years ago, a solemn company filled a few rough tables to break bread with friendly savages. Their feast was a simple one of wild meat and vegetables grown at home. But there was plenty, and that in itself was sufficient cause for Thanksgiving. The years since then have passed quickly, faster than at any other times in the history of the world. Great changes have taken place, in government, in industry, in trade. But through it all we have continued, once each year, to give thanks on Thanksgiving Day!
